

Tech Resources for nonprofit organization:

Discounted software and hosting through TechSoup

TechSoup is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit with a clear focus: connecting your nonprofit, charity, foundation, or public library with technology products and services, plus the free learning resources you need to make informed technology decisions and investments.

Website: <http://www.techsoup.org/>

FREE Office 365 email and application hosting – Unlimited number of users under the E1 plan

Available as a donation to qualifying nonprofit, Office 365 provides anywhere access to: Professional email, shared calendaring, instant messaging (IM), HD video conferencing, screen sharing, online storage, Word, Excel, PowerPoint, OneNote, SharePoint, and Lync.

Website: <http://www.microsoft.com/about/corporatecitizenship/en-us/office365-for-nonprofits/>

Additional resources: <http://www.techsoup.org/office-365>

FREE Google email and application hosting – Unlimited number of users

Get the job done with Google Apps for Nonprofits: Get free access to the Google Apps suite including Gmail, Google Calendar and Google Drive; Work better with colleagues through online collaboration; store documents in the cloud: 30GB of storage across Gmail and Google Drive; Google Apps for Nonprofits is free for all members of Google for Nonprofits

<http://www.google.com/nonprofits/>

FREE Email-blast marketing subscription for up to 10,000 emails per month through Vertical Response

At VerticalResponse, we're inspired by the work you do. To make your donors' dollars go further, we'll give you up to 10,000 emails per month for free. If you're a higher-volume sender, we also offer a 15% discount on our monthly plans.

<http://www.verticalresponse.com/pricing/non-profit/application>